Foreword

The State planning schedule made it necessary to publish the Annual Planning Information before 1990 Census detailed characteristics data were available. Consequently, income levels and detailed characteristics (other than sex and race) were projected using 1980 ratios.

Planners should use the data herein with caution and awareness of these limitations.

State of Arkansas

The state of Arkansas, located in the south-central part of the United States, is comprised of seventy-five (75) counties. Ten areas in the state have been designated as Service Delivery Areas under the Job Training Parternship Act. These areas are the city of Little Rock, the Central Arkansas Area (excluding the city of Little Rock), the Eastern Area, the North Central Area, the Northeast Area, the Northwest Area, the Southeast Area, the Southwest Area, the West Central Area, and the Western Area.

Four areas in the state are designated as Metropolitan Statistical Areas (MSA's). These areas include Fayetteville-Springdale, Fort Smith, Little Rock-North Little Rock, and Pine Bluff. In addition, three counties in the state are included in two other Metropolitan Statistical Areas. Little River and Miller Counties are included in the Texarkana, Texas-Arkansas MSA, and Crittenden County is included in the Memphis, Tennessee-Arkansas-Mississippi MSA.

According to the 1990 census, Arkansas' total civilian population was 2,350,725. Of this number, 1,217,649 or 51.8 percent were female. During program year 1993, the total civilian population is projected to be 2,371,435, and during program year 1994, the total is expected to be about 2,378,338.

The state's total civilian labor force numbered 1,134,000 in program year 1990. The total unemployment stood at 78,000, and the unemployment rate was 6.9 percent.

It is estimated that 408,995 persons or 21.7 percent of the state's civilian population 14 years of age and over will be classified as economically disadvantaged in program year 1993. During program year 1994, the estimated number of economically disadvantaged persons 14 years of age and over is expected to be around 412,196. These people will be eligible for programs under the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA).

Poverty Guidelines for Economically Disadvantaged Continental United States

Definition and Poverty Guidelines

The Employment and Training Administration defines an economically disadvantaged person as an individual who:

1. Receives, or is a member of a family which receives, cash welfare payments under a Federal, State, or Local Welfare Program;

2. Has, or is a member of a family which has, received a total annualized family income for the six (6) months prior to application, which, in relation to family size, was not in excess of the higher of:

   a. the poverty level determined in accordance with criteria established by the Office of Management and Budget; or,

   b. 70% of the lower living standard income level;

3. Is a foster child on behalf of whom State or Local government payments are made; or,

4. An adult handicapped individual whose own income meets the requirements of (1) or (2), even though they are a member of a family whose income does not meet such requirements.

Under 1991 poverty guidelines, income levels for a family of one through eight persons for the continental United States are:

NOTE: Parts may not add to totals due to rounding.

For purposes of planning data, the economically disadvantaged is being used to represent the JTPA-eligible population. The JTPA population does, however, include two groups of individuals who may not be economically disadvantaged. The first group are individuals who have a significant barrier to employment and are eligible under Title IIA of the JTPA Act. Dislocated workers are the other group and are eligible under Section 3 of the Act.

[1] Economically disadvantaged but not eligible for JTPA programs.

[2] Not included in JTPA-eligible population; eligible for limited participation.

[3] Hispanics may be included in all races.

[1] Age 16 and older.

[2] Included in the Vietnam Veterans and Other Veterans estimates.

[3] Data for this target group represents those inmates released on parole from each county from July 1, 1990, through June 30, 1991. The number in program year 1993 is expected to be about the same as in program year 1994. Approximately, 85 percent of the parolees are expected to be economically disadvantaged.

[4] Includes adults receiving benefits through the Aid to Families with Dependent Children program. Data for June, 1991, is being used for fiscal years 1993 and 1994 projections. The Deficit Reduction Act could influence the number of AFDC recipients in the future.
